

Fred Beans Adds McCafferty Mechanicsburg to Family of Dealerships

McCafferty Ford and McCafferty Kia of Mechanicsburg will be operating under a new name, Fred Beans Ford and Fred Beans Kia of Mechanicsburg! While the name is different, the location will remain the same on Carlisle Pike in Mechanicsburg.

McCafferty of Mechanicsburg and The Fred Beans Family of Dealerships are thrilled about the merge. And they want their loyal customers to know that only the name is changing, not the ownership, so they'll find the same great staff they know and love.

Current Vice President of McCafferty of Mechanicsburg, John Haines, says this partnership will maintain the dealerships' tradition of great service and selection. Fred Beans, who has been an owner in the McCafferty dealerships for 16 years, plans to manage the business with integrity while still meeting and exceeding each customer's expectations.

The Fred Beans Family of Dealerships has been family owned and operated for over 40 years. With locations across the greater Philadelphia area, they take pride in offering convenient services for their customers. For more information, visit fredbeans.com
