New Strategy Announced June 22, 2011

- Focus on same store growth
- Target dividend between $70 \%$ and $80 \%$ of fully diluted EPS
- Pursue accretive acquisitions
- Allow private purchases to build relationships with new manufacturers

Factors contributing to change in strategy:

- OEM resistance to public ownership model
- Limited growth opportunities
- Low trading multiple compared to US peers

ACQ Share Performance Since June 22, 2011:

- Improvement in share price of $\mathbf{1 2 4 \%}$
- Average daily trading volume of approximately 27,000 since strategy change versus 13,500 over same period prior to change

Strategy

Management update since June 22, 2011:

- Management continues to seek acquisition and open point opportunities with both new and current Manufacturers
- Potential growth opportunities exceeding Management's expectations since June of 2011

Impact of strategy on business landscape:

- Potential to add more dealerships
- Improvement in trading multiple allows future acquisition opportunities to be more accretive
- Continued improvement in liquidity of shares
