DAY ONE

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30TH, 2016

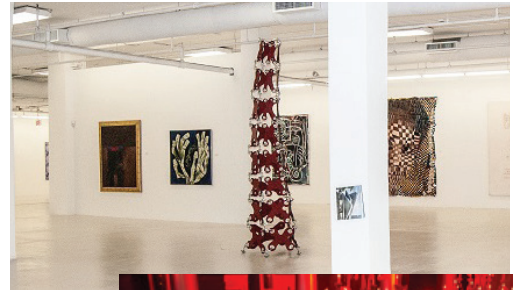

Arrive into the cultural hub of Miami, where you will be warmly greeted by the Tributo Finali Mondiali Rally Team. For those of you flying in, our concierge will be more than happy to arrange your airport transfer and our logistics team will ensure your automobile is safely unloaded and ready for your arrival at our base hotel for the first evening; the St. Regis Bal Harbour.

The St. Regis Bal Harbour Resort, awarded the coveted Forbes five-star and AAA five-diamond awards for 2016, is a haven of oceanfront elegance in Miami Beach, a truly remarkable property that never fails to impress. Following check-in, you will be shown to your spacious room and given some time to relax and enjoy the resort from the privacy of your private balcony or beach side before our official Welcome Reception that evening.

The timing for our rally coincides perfectly with the opening of Art Basel in Miami Beach, one of the most important art exhibitions and cultural events in the world. We'll take this opportunity to kick-start your experience with an exclusive welcome reception at the Gary Nader Fine Art Center. This, the largest gallery in the world with 55,000 sq. ft. of exhibition space made up of three key components: Gary Nader Private Collection, the Exhibition Gallery and the Sculpture Park. Situated in the heart of Wynwood, the new and renovated art district of Miami, it presents an extensive number of solo and group exhibitions, showcasing a major selection of works by well-known Modern and Contemporary artists worldwide.

Our host for this evening, Gary Nader, has been regarded as one of the most entrepreneurial and successful gallerists in the world. Together we will enjoy a truly unique dining experience surrounded by art from his personal collection and the chance to view something truly remarkable. Dress code for this evening is cocktail.

After a delicious breakfast, the Rally begins with a ceremonial departure. Dress for comfort and adventure as we leave the glamorous surroundings of Miami Beach and head west with a spirited drive along the Tamiami Trail into the heart of the Everglades. Here you will be immersed in the local flavor with a pit stop for lunch where we will savor some local fare and explore the mangroves and 'wild' inhabitants of the area on a fleet of private airboats.

From here we continue our journey west to the coastal town of Naples where luxurious accommodations will be enjoyed at the Ritz-Carlton, Naples Beach Resort. Following check-in and time to enjoy the hotel's amenities, join us for a sunset dinner on our very own private beach as our second day of this momentous journey comes to an end.

DAY THREE

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2ND, 2016

Following a restful night's sleep, we once again gather for a group departure. This time we head northwest through the orange groves of central Florida to Orlando. True to the city of escapism that creates worlds within worlds, we take you on a journey to Tuscany as you enjoy an al-fresco lunch at the exclusive Bella Collina club.

Following lunch, a short drive brings us to our hotel for the evening, The Ritz-Carlton, Orlando. Let our Concierge team know if we can set up a quick round of golf or spa treatment for you before an evening of glamour and holiday inspired entertainment. Dress code for this evening will be Formal Attire.

The 2016 Finali Mondiali, the culmination of the Ferrari Challenge season for teams from around the world and the biggest Ferrari celebration of the year, will take place on US soil for the first time in history!

For the last leg of our Rally, we head to the legendary Daytona International Speedway in an attempt to make our very own history by breaking the Guinness World Record for the 'Largest Parade of Ferrari Cars.' Get ready for an exciting day of racing and trackside VIP hospitality.

This evening, you will be our guests at the Ferrari Finali Mondiali Dinner, a celebration of the Ferrari Challenge season complete with awards ceremony, guest appearances and speeches from notable Ferrari personalities. Accommodations this evening will be conveniently located at the Hilton Daytona Beach Resort, the home base for all Ferrari executives and dealer principals during this special event weekend.

DAY FIVE

Head back to the track and enjoy all the action and full VIP hospitality at the final day of our 2016 Finali Mondiali. Enjoy access to the Ferrari paddock, Classiche Concours d'Elegance and Ferrari Fan Zone.

Our journey concludes on Sunday and guests will be expected to check-out then.
