Which vehicles come with the Honda Barn Exclusive Lifetime Protection?

The Honda Barn Exclusive Lifetime Protection applies to all new and qualified pre-owned vehicles.

Is there any extra maintenance required to maintain the protection?

No. You must simply follow the manufacturer's required maintenance schedule as referred to in the owner's manual.

Where am I covered by the Honda Barn Exclusive Lifetime Protection?

The Honda Barn Exclusive Lifetime Protection is good anywhere in the USA or Canada.

How long is the Honda Barn Exclusive Lifetime Protection really good for?

Valid for as long as you own the vehicle. Unlimited time, unlimited miles.

How much will it cost?

Zero. We work towards building customers for life, so the Honda Barn Exclusive Lifetime Protection comes standard with every qualifying vehicle at no extra charge.

Can I get the Honda Barn Exclusive Lifetime Protection at another dealer in the area?

No. Honda Barn is the only dealership in the area that has chosen to offer this Honda Barn Exclusive Lifetime Protection, and to only our customers.

Do I have to have all service completed at your dealership?

No. Our award-winning service department will certainly exceed your expectations, but you're not required to come here to Honda Barn. To keep the Honda Barn Exclusive Lifetime Protection in force, you must perform all the manufacturer's required maintenance and keep the records. It's that easy! Please remember, if you have your vehicle service performed here, we will maintain all those records for you.

WHAT'S THE CATCH?

The only "catch" is you need to purchase your vehicle here at Honda Barn. Otherwise, there are no hidden fees or gimmicks. Honda Barn provides this protection as an added value to our customers for doing business with us.

What's covered with the Honda Barn Exclusive Lifetime Protection?

Simply put, the Honda Barn Exclusive Lifetime Protection covers components of the vehicle's propulsion system, such as the engine, transmission and other related pieces such as the differential. Just about anything involved in bringing power to the wheels – the most important and expensive parts of the vehicle... engine, driveshaft, and transmission.

Ask yourself this question "Does it make the vehicle run forward or backward?" If you answer "yes", then it is most likely covered by Honda Barn Exclusive Lifetime Protection.
