Thank you for completing this information. Ridenour Auto Group gives careful consideration to all requests for charitable contributions. The primary focus of our donations is local. While we may support national causes with local affiliates, our emphasis is on helping community organizations most whose efforts benefit New Lexington and surrounding areas in Perry County. We realize the need in our community is great, but our resources are limited. To allow for a fair review of funding requests, please complete the above information and submit it with you organization's flyer or letter.
