AUTO AUCTION

AUTO AUCTION RECEIPT

ATTENTION: In accordance with section 170 (f)(12) of the Internal Revenue Code, if you are donating a vehicle, and you plan to claim a deduction IN EXCESS OF $500 in connection with that donation, THIS FORM MAY NOT BE USED TO SUBSTANTIATE THAT DONATION. If the claim value of your donated vehicle exceeds $500, federal tax law provides that you will not be allowed a deduction for such contribution unless you receive contemporaneous written acknowledgement from Ohio Valley Goodwill that includes, among other things, a reporting of the proceeds received from Ohio Valley Goodwill's sale of such vehicle. If you intend to claim a contribution deduction in excess of $500, YOU MUST notify Ohio Valley Goodwill at the time of your vehicle donation so that Ohio Valley Goodwill may gather the appropriate information and provide you with the contemporaneous written acknowledgement that you will need in order to claim such deduction.

SPECIAL NOTICE: If your contribution has a fair market value between $250 and $500, you must itemize the donated item(s) to substantiate the contribution on your receipt or as a separated listing in order to take this contribution amount as a tax deduction on your tax return. Ohio Valley Goodwill is a private not-for-profit charitable organization which is tax exempt under section 501©(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
