Where does perfect planning begin? With the very first sketch.

A roof box needs to be planned just as meticulously as an Audi vehicle. An Audi roof box is recognisable from its progressive design at the first glance; it is this design that unmistakably reflects the style of Audi models. The enhanced aerodynamics achieved by the flat, sporty look are instantly noticeable, too. The high-quality finish and impressive level of safety and protection represent the final touches. The new roof box from Audi Genuine Accessories was developed from the outset with the aim of elevating design and function to a new level.

The result is clear to see and is best reflected by the practicality of the product, which is one of many characteristics that have already been demonstrated in several different testing procedures. For example, the roof box can withstand high-speed trials at 200 km/h plus 96 hours of testing at temperatures ranging from +90 °C to -40 °C. Whatever you are planning, the new roof box from Audi Genuine Accessories ensures that you can always transport your luggage reliably and conveniently.
